

The figure shows the gaps between the actual and synthetic units for Poland as well as all of the control units. The synthetic controls of the control units are placebos (constructed as if there was a treatment).